

Give stem cells 'A'

Almost halfway through a $600 million state program supporting stem cell research, eight medical schools around New York are reporting progress on projects such as replicating liver cells and eradicating leukemia cells.

View the original article here: Give stem cells 'A' – Albany Times Union