

Importance of global food supply and security

The importance of a secure global food supply extends beyond the threat of hunger and malnutrition into wider security concerns, the UK Crop Protection Association has warned. Economic hardship, political instability and human conflict could also be a reaction to a poor supply in the future.

View the original article here: UK – A load of old rubbish – Meattradenewsdaily \(blog\)