

Virginia governor issues executive order for newborn screening

Critical congenital heart disease (CCHD) affects 300 infants in Virginia each year. Gov. Bob McDonnell has directed a work group to develop a plan to screen all Virginia babies. (Currently 74 percent are diagnosed at birth.)

View the original article here: Governor issues executive order for newborn screening – Daily Press \(blog\)