Prop 37 judgment day upon us

The No on 37 campaign is having an impact, especially the television ads with California doctors asking voters to reject the proposition. Of course supporters of the proposition have yet to fire their first volley. This group has bought television time for the two weeks before the vote. Opponents are bracing for the scaremongering attack backlash to counter the No on 37 campaign.

View the original article here: Prop 37 judgment day upon us