

India: Farmers' leaders call for right to choose GM crops

A consortium of some farmers organisation from Andhra Pradesh, Haryana, Punjab, Maharashtra and Tamil Nadu have urged the government to remove all hindrances in the path of technological advancement of Indian farming and let the farmers make their own choice of choosing high-yielding seeds like genetically modified (GM) ones.

View the original article here: Farmers' leaders call for right to choose GM crops