

Zimbabwe: Maize shortage renews GM debate

The following is an excerpt.

HARARE, 4 March 2013 (IRIN) – A major shortage of maize has sent the price of maize meal, used for porridge and poultry feed, spiralling in Zimbabwe, prompting traders to lobby the government to consider importing genetically modified (GM) maize.

View the original article here: Maize shortage renews debate over GM in Zimbabwe