

For science denialism, visit Food Democracy Now

The following is an editorial summary.

David Tribe uses images from the “Food Democracy Now!” Facebook page to highlight the dangerous misinformation being spread by the organization, in particular the idea that the FDA has approved a dangerous new “GMO vaccine.”

In Tribe’s: “From the ignorant, by the ignorant, to the ignorant. These mad-ideas are far more dangerous than GMOs. It’s time for Real Science Now! to get-up now.”
