Peru extends GMO crop cultivation ban for 15 years, after months of intense debate

The president of the Congress of the Republic [of Peru], Mirtha Vásquez, signed the enactment of the 15-year extension of Law 29811, Moratorium Law on modified living organism products.

Follow the latest news and policy debates on sustainable agriculture, biomedicine, and other ‘disruptive’ innovations. Subscribe to our newsletter.

SIGN UP

The Law was approved during the II Agrarian Plenary, held in October 2020. After making certain clarifications, and waiting for the political climate to ease, it was finally signed into law.

Read the original post